Get Ready for William D. Ford Federal Direct Student Loan (Direct Loan) Program!

Loans from banks (FFELP program) will no longer be available. Beginning July 1, 2010, the College is required by law to convert to the Direct Loan Program.

All students interested in taking out loans must complete an entrance counseling session and a new Master Promissory Note (MPN) at: www.studentloans.gov. Plan ahead and do these now!

(You must also complete a 2010-2011 FAFSA at www.fafsa.ed.gov, if you have not already done so).

- Messages that are directed to financial aid applicants, or to you personally, display below. You can reply to a message via e-mail by clicking Respond.

A message is displayed with the following details:

Message	Date Posted
You have a financial aid bookstore credit of $750.00. For your convenience, you can use your bookstore credit online at ccp.bncollege.com . Please note that your bookstore credit was calculated based on your estimated aid. If your enrollment or estimated aid is adjusted you may qualify for less financial aid. If the amount of 2012 your bookstore purchases exceeds your available financial aid, you will be responsible for repaying the excess amount to the College.	Aug 20,

Below the message, there is a link "Select Another Aid Year" and the text "RELEASE: 8.5".

A callout box with a black border and white background points to the message. The text inside the box reads: "$750 available for books and supplies. Proceed to the college bookstore, select your books, and present your college ID with your purchases at the checkout register."
