Multiple Location Students by Primary Campus

This In-Brief corresponds to IR Report # 166, presenting a profile of student characteristics for multiple location students by primary campus. In preparing the data for this report, students were categorized as single or multiple location students as well as by primary campus. The primary campus indicator was determined by the location at which students enrolled in the greatest percentage of their courses. For more detailed information, please see IR Report # 166.

Gender Distribution for Multiple Location Students

Median Age Distribution for Multiple Location Students

Full-Time vs. Part-Time Distribution for Multiple Location Students

Median # of Cumulative Credits Earned for Multiple Location Students

New vs. Continuing Distribution for Multiple Location Students

Median Cumulative GPA for Multiple Location Students
In-Brief # 166

Single Location Students by Primary Campus

This In-Brief corresponds to IR Report # 166, presenting a profile of student characteristics for single location students by primary campus. In preparing the data for this report, students were categorized as single or multiple location students as well as by primary campus. The primary campus indicator was determined by the location at which students enrolled in the greatest percentage of their courses. For more information, please see Report # 166.